Finance and Risk Manager

- Contemporary Standards body
- Outstanding professional development
- CBD Location

The Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) and the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (AUASB) are Commonwealth entities that develop, issue and maintain accounting and auditing standards, based on contemporary international principles. The Boards contribute to investor confidence in the Australian market by setting financial reporting standards that provide users with information enabling key resource decisions and auditing standards that enhance the credibility of information to users. Key aspects include:

- influencing international developments,
- responding to domestic issues across the public and private sector and
- facilitating strong Australian stakeholder engagement.

Both bodies aim to be the leading national standard setter and global centres of excellence. Reporting to the National Director, the Finance and Risk Manager provides accounting, financial and risk assurance services to both the AASB and AUASB Boards. You will prepare monthly and annual financial statements and notes liaising with external auditors. Additionally you will be responsible for budgeting, forecasts and variance analysis as well as providing critical financial information to the Director and AASB and AUASB Chairs. The position also carries an important risk and compliance focus. This involves developing and monitoring processes in order to adhere to government and regulatory requirements including HR, IT and ministerial/parliamentarian reporting. Your assurance skills will ensure that all risk procedures are met.

At a world-class standards body, a high level of accuracy and timely delivery are of the essence. CA/CPA qualified you have the ability to interpret and analyse financial information and to provide valuable insight to stakeholders. In an engaging workplace, you will enjoy tremendous professional development opportunities in a broad and hands-on role. Previous experience in a finance or corporate services remit within a government or public entity would be highly regarded.
