

Global Sustainability Standards Board (GSSB)

GRI Topic Standard Project for Biodiversity – Re-exposure draft of Disclosure on Access and benefit-sharing

This GSSB Work Program Consultation can be accessed on the website of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI)/GSSB using the following link:

<https://www.globalreporting.org/media/dcdgnnxf/item-07-gri-topic-standard-project-for-biodiversity-re-exposure-draft-of-disclosure-on-access-and-benefit-sharing.pdf>

314KB

The AASB requests that if Australian stakeholders respond to the GSSB's Re-exposure draft they also send the AASB a copy of their comments.

The Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) is an independent, international organisation that helps organisations be transparent and take responsibility for their impacts on people and the planet.

Taking a multi-stakeholder approach, the GRI develops standards for organisations to apply which enables informed dialogue and decision making around those impacts.

The GRI maintains the world's most comprehensive sustainability reporting standards.

As such, the AASB is following the work of the GRI/GSSB as part of its Sustainability Reporting Project.