Preface

Standards amended by AASB 2022-C

This Standard makes amendments to the Australian Accounting Standards and AASB Practice Statement listed in paragraph 1 of the Standard.

Standards repealed by AASB 2022-C

This Standard formally repeals the superseded and redundant Australian Accounting Standards as set out in Schedules 1 and 2 to the Standard.

Main features of this Standard

Main requirements

Editorial corrections

This Standard makes editorial corrections to various Australian Accounting Standards and AASB Practice Statement 2 Making Materiality Judgements. The corrections include corrections made by the IASB to IFRS Standards since June 2021.

Repeals of Standards

This Standard repeals (via Schedule 1) Australian Accounting Standards that have been superseded by either subsequent principal versions of the Standard or by other Standards without being formally repealed at the time. The superseding Standards are also identified in this Standard, in Column 2 of Schedule 1, as they determine when each superseded Standard ceased to apply.

The Standard also repeals (via Schedule 2) Standards that made amendments to other Standards, being amending Standards that have passed their Parliamentary disallowance period and their legal commencement date but have not been formally repealed. Amending Standards are redundant once their amendments are made to the other Standards on the legal commencement date.

Despite the repeals, the repealed Standards continue to apply to the reporting periods to which they applied previously. Accordingly, the repeals have no effect on which Standards apply to the preparation and presentation of financial statements for reporting periods.

As a result of the repeals, the repealed Standards cease to be classified as in-force legislative instruments on the Federal Register of Legislation. However, the repealed Standards will continue to be available on the Federal Register of Legislation, but classified as legislative instruments that are no longer in force. There will be no change to the availability of the repealed Standards on the AASB's website.

Application date

The editorial corrections apply to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023. Earlier application of the corrections is permitted.

The repeals take effect upon the commencement of this Standard as a legislative instrument. An explicit application date in terms of reporting periods is not required for the repeals. Each repealed Standard has already been either superseded by another Standard or, in the case of amending Standards, made redundant by the passing of its Parliamentary disallowance period and the legal commencement date.

Accounting Standard AASB 2022-C Editorial Corrections to Australian Accounting Standards and Repeal of Superseded and Redundant Standards

Objective

- 1 This Standard amends the following pronouncements to make editorial corrections:
  - (a) AASB 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures (August 2015);
  - (b) AASB 116 Property, Plant and Equipment (August 2015);
  - (c) AASB 124 Related Party Disclosures (July 2015);
  - (d) AASB 128 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures (August 2015);
  - (e) AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting (August 2015);
  - (f) AASB 1054 Australian Additional Disclosures (May 2011); and
  - (g) AASB Practice Statement 2 Making Materiality Judgements (December 2017).
- 2 This Standard repeals Australian Accounting Standards that have been superseded by other Standards but not formally repealed. It also repeals Standards that amend other Standards as their principal purpose but which have not been formally repealed, provided their Parliamentary disallowance period and legal commencement date have passed.

Application

- 3 The editorial corrections set out in this Standard apply to entities and financial statements in accordance with the application of the other Standards set out in AASB 1057 Application of Australian Accounting Standards.
- 4 The editorial corrections in this Standard apply to annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023. The editorial corrections may be applied to annual periods beginning before 1 January 2023.
- 5 This Standard uses underlining, striking out and other typographical material to identify some of the editorial corrections to a pronouncement, in order to make the amendments more understandable. However, the amendments made by this Standard do not include that underlining, striking out or other typographical material. Amended paragraphs are shown with deleted text struck through and new text underlined. Ellipses (...) are used to help provide the context within which amendments are made and also to indicate text that is not amended.
- 6 The repeals of superseded Standards and redundant amending Standards set out in this Standard take effect upon the commencement of this Standard as a legislative instrument (see paragraph 18).
